Start location: Colyton Tramway Station Difficulty: Easy

Route Summary: 4 walks linking Colyton tram station with the East Devon Way along the River Coly.
Direction: north to south

Directions

Start at Colyton Station - Walk down the road past the columns of an old railway bridge (now dismantled) > Turn left into Cowhayne Lane > Continue for a short on-road stretch then go through kissing gate and cross the field to the large footbridge > Here you have joined the East Devon Way.

1 Turn right over the footbridge - Then follow the East Devon way markers to Colyton (10 mins).

OR

2 Follow the path down by the side of the River Coly - After a while (approx. 15 mins) you will reach a junction in the footpaths > At this junction - you can turn left and follow the East Devon Way markers to Musbury and beyond to Lyme Regis..

OR

3 Follow the Link waymarkers down the river Coly - Eventually (approx. 1.2 miles/40 mins) you will emerge opposite the Colyford Tramway Station and pub > From here you can (depending on your ticket) take the tram to Colyton or to Seaton (take care crossing the road).

4 Turn left and cross the Tramway into Cowhayne Lane - Walk along Cowhayne Lane > After a short distance turn left at the farm onto the East Devon Way > After approx. 1 mile/30 mins: turn left along the track to Kingsdon Hill and return to Colyton (makes a pleasant circular walk - Total 2.5miles/1h30 mins approx) OR turn right to continue along the East Devon Way to Musbury (approx. 1 mile/30 mins).
